BROOMFIELD, Colo., Nov. 17, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- The most wonderful time of year is even better at world-class mountains like Whistler Blackcomb, Park City Mountain, Vail Mountain, Breckenridge and more. To experience it all, guests must act fast —Epic Passes go off sale December 4, including Epic 1-7 Day Passes. Whether it's a single day of skiing or a season full of alpine adventures, Epic Pass is the key to experiencing the magic of the mountains for the holidays and beyond.

No matter when you plan to visit, skiing is best spent with loved ones, and with new Epic Friend Tickets it's easier than ever for season-long Pass Holders to share the joy of the mountains with 50% off lift tickets for friends and family. Plus, what they pay can be applied as credit toward a 2026/27 Epic Pass, turning this year's gift into next year's adventure.*

Holiday Highlights Across the Mountains

With an Epic Pass, you can lock in your access now, then decide later when and where to go. Epic Passes provide significant savings compared to buying lift tickets, with flexible options like the Epic 1-7 Day Pass.

Get your Epic Pass now before it's too late and then start planning your mountain holiday.

- Park City Mountain (UT): Celebrate the season with festive favorites —Tree Lighting at Canyons Village on Nov. 28, Santa's iconic Town Lift ride on Dec. 20, and the Torchlight Parade on Dec. 24. From mid-December through New Year's Eve, enjoy live music, fireworks, caroling, ice sculptures and more.
- Whistler Blackcomb (Canada): Welcome winter at Whistler Winterlight, a festive evening of lights, music and hands-on fun at Whistler Olympic Plaza from Nov. 27-29. Ring in the New Year with the season's first Fire & Ice Show, where Whistler Blackcomb's top skiers and riders soar through a blazing ring of fire every Sunday night.
- Vail Mountain (CO): As part of Vail Après, light up the village with the Lionshead Holiday Tree Lighting on Nov. 29. Enjoy a free, dazzling exhibition of Champion Figure Skaters on the Arrabelle Ice Rink, live music and special appearance of a red clad, jovial, bearded guest.
- Breckenridge (CO): On Dec. 6, festivities begin with the Holiday Dog Parade, where costumed pups prance down Main Street to spread cheer. Then, hundreds of Santas dash through downtown in the Race of the Santas, filling the streets with jingle-bell energy. As evening falls, the town comes alive with the Lighting of Breckenridge.
- Beaver Creek (CO): Ring in 2026 with the resort's dazzling New Year's Eve Ski Down, featuring over 200 skiers lighting up the slopes. Then, stroll through the village and be amazed by a Winter Circus with aerialists, fire dancers and more capped off with a fireworks show.
- Keystone (CO): Start the season with the Winter Carnival and Lighting of River Run on Nov. 29, complete with cookies, crafts, live music, and Santa before the village tree sparkles at dusk. Don't miss Snow Fort After Dark on Dec. 27, where tunnels and slides glow with colorful lights, a live DJ sets the vibe, and hot cocoa fuels night ski laps.
- Stowe (VT): New Year's Eve explodes in style: think dazzling fireworks, groomer and torchlight parades lighting up the slopes and an unforgettable performance by Ice Dance International on the Spruce Village Ice Rink, starting Dec. 31.

- Andermatt-Sedrun-Disentis (Switzerland): Celebrate New Year's Eve surrounded by the snow-covered Swiss Alps. Enjoy night sledding from Nätschen to Andermatt, open until 12:30 a.m. on Dec. 31 for a truly unique way to ring in the New Year.
