BROOMFIELD, Colo., Nov. 16, 2026 /PRNewswire/ -- With lifts spinning at Vail Mountain, Breckenridge and Keystone, ski season is officially underway. Whether you'll be chasing powder days, planning a long weekend or spending the whole season on snow, there is still time to save on skiing and riding this winter. It starts with locking in lift access before Epic Passes go off sale December 6. With options ranging from the season-long Epic Pass to an Epic Day Pass for just 1–7 days, skiers and riders who buy now can save up to 65% compared to lift tickets. Plus, Epic Pass Holders have access to exclusive savings on lodging, My Epic Gear rentals, and more.

While Vail Mountain, Breckenridge and Keystone in Colorado are already welcoming guests back to the slopes, more resorts like Whistler Blackcomb (BC), Park City Mountain (UT), Heavenly (CA), Beaver Creek (CO) and Crested Butte (CO) are scheduled to open in the coming weeks.

Save Up to 65% on Skiing and Riding with Epic Pass
Whether skiing a few days or all season, there's an Epic Pass option to match how you want to spend your winter. New this year, young adults ages 13–30 save 20% on an Epic Pass or Epic Local Pass.

- For powder days and quick getaways: Epic Day Pass (from $50-$106/day) lets skiers and riders choose 1-7 days and decide when and where to use them later.
- Go all in on winter: Epic Pass ($1,245/adult; $995/young adult) offers unrestricted access to 90+ resorts, including Vail Mountain, Breckenridge, Park City Mountain and Whistler Blackcomb.
- Expand your mountain horizons: Epic Local Pass ($959/adult; $759/young adult) offers access to 50+ resorts, including unlimited access to Keystone, Breckenridge and Crested Butte, plus 10 days at Vail Mountain, Whistler Blackcomb and Beaver Creek.

The savings continue throughout the winter. Season-long Epic Pass Holders receive five Epic Friend Tickets offering 50% off adult lift tickets to share with friends and family. Plus, all Passes come with exclusive savings including 20% off dining, lodging, group ski and ride school lessons, equipment rentals and more through Epic Mountain Rewards.

Save Up to 35% on Winter Lodging During the Lodging Cyber Sale
Lift access isn't the only way to save this winter. Skiers and riders looking to pair their days on snow with a mountain getaway can save during Vail Resorts' Lodging Cyber Sale from November 23 to December 7. With Epic Mountain Rewards, Epic Pass Holders unlock the maximum savings with up to 35% off room rates at participating properties, including The Arrabelle and The Lodge at Vail, One Ski Hill Place in Breckenridge and The Osprey in Beaver Creek.
